PRESS RELEASE

Christine Ehnström appointed new chairman of the Board at Advisense Denmark

During the past year, Advisense has continued its growth journey towards becoming a leading European Governance, Risk and Compliance expert firm. Despite a challenging macroeconomic environment, Advisense has demonstrated remarkable resilience and delivered excellent results in delivering core value to clients within governance, risk and compliance.

As previously announced, Kristian Bentzer has decided to leave his role as Group CEO of Advisense and Christine Ehnström will take over the role as Group CEO of the Advisense group on November 1, 2024. On this date, Kristian will also leave his position as chairman of the board of Advisense A/S in order to join the Board of Directors of the Advisense Group.

We are pleased to announce that Christine, in addition to her new role as Group CEO, will succeed Kristian in the role as chairman of Advisense A/S.

"With our growth ambition in the Nordics, Denmark is a prioritized market - being a large market for governance, compliance and risk services with its large banking and financial services sector. Combining Advisense's existing local presence in Denmark within anti-money laundering (AML), compliance and risk with our international team of experts within these areas, as well as adding local capabilities for the insurance sector in Denmark, means that we have great opportunities for growth in Denmark ahead. I look forward to assisting even more Danish clients in navigating change and regulations in a complex environment in the future", says Christine Ehnström.

"With Christine Ehnström as new Group CEO we will continue our focus on innovative and operational solutions within governance, compliance, risk and AML. Through increased knowledge sharing and resource management we'll be even better positioned to help our clients navigating the complex challenges with governance, risk and compliance. This will enable us to support growth and development in Denmark and the Nordics while creating value in a dynamic market", says Kenneth Ullmann Eenholt, Head of Advisory Denmark and CEO of Advisense Denmark.
